

Biography

Biography
Biography
BIOGRAPHY

George Hancock

George Hancock currently serves as the Coordinator for School Improvement Grants at the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI). This position includes oversight of seventy-seven Priority Schools across the eight regions of North Carolina. Prior to assuming this role, Mr. Hancock worked as an NCDPI Title I consultant and state coordinator for Title I, Part D Programs (Neglected or Delinquent). Prior to working at the state education agency, Mr. Hancock has served as a middle school teacher, an assistant principal, and a principal in a high-performing Title I school.